

Quintessentially Estates opens office in Quinta do Lago

Global independent buying advisor Quintessentially Estates, specialising in search and acquisition, has announced the expansion of the company's portfolio to Portugal. Headed by Quintessentially Estates Portugal Managing Director, Robert Brand, the new office is located in Quinta do Lago.

"Born out of the Quintessentially Group, Quintessentially Estates' distinctive position and database ensures a unique offering in the property sector in key destinations around the world for personal use or investment," said a statement from the company, which added that the Algarve office has been established to give those seeking properties in the Golden Triangle (Quinta do Lago, Vale do Lobo and Vilamoura) "the best in class service".

Quintessentially Estates CEO, Penny Mosgrove, said: "I am thrilled to have made this partnership in Portugal. Robert Brand and his team have the local expertise to truly and expertly assist our members and clients globally. Portugal is a very exciting area for us. This dedicated office is a great addition to our ever-expanding team."

Robert Brand said: "I am delighted to be part of this exciting global brand. It allows us to instantly have a strong global footprint whilst maintaining and utilising our localised and expert knowledge to ensure an exemplary service to our clients."

The office is located at Rua Sacadura Cabral, Lote 292, Loja C, Almancil.
